UPLIFT CLUB

On Wednesday, Sept. 6, the Uplift Club held its Federation Day program at the home of Lena Fitzgerald. Seventeen members and seven guests were present. The quotations in answer to roll call were planned by the literary committee. The meeting opened with chorus singing of the federation song, "America, the Beautiful." Following prayer a vocal solo was sung by Lena Fitzgerald. The secretary's report was read and approved.

The members then listened with much interest to the state president, Mrs. H. A. Slayton, who told of some things she heard at the biennial and also about clubs in our own state.

Next was a song and the treasurer's report was read and approved. A short business session was then held, after which we had the pleasure of hearing Miss Mary Moody. Miss Moody is chairman of the committee on educational and normal school scholarship, and told us some very interesting facts about her work, as well as about her trip to Chautauqua and things she heard there.

The meeting closed with chorus singing, after which refreshments of wafers, pineapple with marshmallows were served by the hostess.

UNITY CLUB

The September meeting of the Unity Club of the Congregational Church was held Monday evening. Plans for the fall and winter months were discussed and decided upon, a program of activity being outlined which will prove of interest to the entire community. Reports indicated that the club is in a flourishing condition, and, under the inspiring leadership of the newly elected president, Miss Nan Wombell, supported by a very efficient executive committee, will continue to be not only a source of strength and inspiration to the society, with which it is associated, but also a means of rendering effective and constructive service along many lines. The "piece-de-resistance" of the program Monday was the rhymed reports of the members, describing vividly the manner in which each had earned a dollar for the club treasury. Following the business session, the usual social hour was enjoyed, delicious refreshments being served by the hostesses, Mrs. Blanche Waite, Mrs. Alex Bruce, Mrs. George Dick and Mrs. Harvey Turner.

A party of six people from New York State lost their car by fire when near Bennington last week, and barely escaped from it with their lives when it took fire from some unexplained cause.

Holmes for Sheriff and

Hollenbeck for Side Judge

Result of Quiet Primary Election Tuesday in Contested Offices—Representatives McKinley in Stowe, Twiss in Wolcott and Lang in Cambridge—Greene and Fleetwood Popular Candidates.

The result of the primary election is given below. E. E. Holmes of Johnson won the nomination for sheriff by a wide margin—"the women did it."

"Judge" Hollenbeck of Wolcott won the long desired honor, the nomination for assistant judge, by a safe margin.

J. B. McKinley was nominated for representative in Stowe; W. H. Lang in Cambridge and F. T. Twiss in Wolcott.

Lamoille County

In Lamoille county, Bert E. Reynolds of Cambridge was nominated

Proctor Wins in State Primary—

Footo Carries Lamoille County

Dullest Campaign in Years—No Contest of Office in Either Republican or Democratic Parties

Returns were late in coming in, many of them not until past midnight. As the voting law now stands it is a detriment to small towns and a waste of time to all.

As it proved in this county, practically every vote was polled by five o'clock, the usual time, and election officers had to stay around with nothing to do for three more mortal hours. The new law is all right for cities, but all wrong for country towns.

No returns were received until after 8:30 p. m. and then county and scattering state began to come. Not until after 10:30 were the county returns all in. Thanks to the Citizens' Telephone Company service, only were we able to give as complete returns as we did in early editions.

Proctor was nominated by a trifle over 4,000, with 14 towns missing. Footo carried Addison, Chittenden, Grand Isle, Franklin and Lamoille counties.

PEOPLES ACADEMY NOTES

Aside from the regular exercises attendant upon the opening of Peoples Academy were the presentations of the faculty to the student body made by Miss Mower in her happy manner. Mr. Stafford of the school board also was present and spoke briefly, giving some very telling facts. Wallace Peck, on behalf of the class of 1922, presented to the school two oak desks and chairs. Principal Morrow accepted for the school.

The enrollment at the Academy by classes is as follows: Class I 33; class II 25; class III 50; class IV 41; class V 30; class VI 33. There are 11 girls enrolled in the teacher-training class under the direction of Miss Allingham. Other pupils will be registering during the week so that the outlook is very promising.

Leo Archambault of East Fairfield has entered the junior class, transferring from Brigham Academy.

The annual reception tendered to the entering classes by the senior class will be held in Academy hall Friday evening of this week. The senior class, with no opposition. All of the old county officers were renominated, except for sheriff and side judges, where there were spirited contests.

In Elmore, H. C. Delano was unopposed; in Hyde Park, R. W. Crocker of the north village; in Johnson, William Sinclair; in Morristown, Levi Munson for town representative.

In Belvidere, Eden and Waterville, no nominations were filed for town representative.

Fleetwood Popular

The vote for member of Congress proves the popularity of Frederick G. Fleetwood, who ran over 500 votes ahead of any candidate in Lamoille county.

Godette for High Bailiff

E. G. Godette of Hyde Park received 27 votes for nomination as High Bailiff. Little interest was shown in this office throughout the county.

Among the scattering votes the names of T. C. Cheney and R. W. Hulburd were entered for State's Attorney.

The large vote for Levi Munson as representative showed the great demand for his services as was known long before he would allow his name to be used on the ballot.

THE EARLE STORE

Among the New Goods

We show this week a lot of new ribbons; some especially for hair bows. New colors in the peko edge, double faced ribbons for dress trimmings, etc.

Yarns

Another lot of Germantown and Golden Glow Yarns. Beautiful shades for the fancy sweaters now being worn.

Practical Front Corsets

When you think of corsets just remember we carry the "P. N." Corsets. They are a revelation to any lady who has never worn one.

Outings

Our fall supply of Outings is here and is a splendid line of plain and fancies, both in the 27-inch and yard-wide.

Wool Middies

We show a good line of all Wool Middies in red and blue. Desirable for school wear.

HYDE PARK LOCALS

Y. P. S. C. E. Resumes Meetings—L. C. A. Notes—A. B. Collins Died Last Thursday; Obituary on Another Page

Andrew Cowan is in very poor health.

H. M. McFarland is in Burlington for a few days.

Landlord Grant spent several days in Montreal last week.

D. H. Scribner and family spent Saturday in St. Johnsbury.

John Viets of Boston is a guest at the home of H. A. Noyes.

Deputy Fire Marshall A. G. Preble was in town Wednesday.

F. B. Crowell of Hartford was a business visitor in town recently.

Several from here are attending the state fair at White River Junction.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miner and Mrs. Edward Lilley were visitors in Burlington one day last week.

Benjamin Hulburd started last Saturday for Madison, Wis., where he will fill a position at the university there.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Putnam, Mrs. Effie Putnam and Miss Dorcas Sawyer were visitors in Burlington last Friday.

It is expected that Rev. Mr. Hayes of Waterbury will occupy the pulpit of the Congregational Church next Sunday morning.

It was a light vote at the primary Tuesday and the result just as the "wise ones" expected. Now we'll see what the November election says.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hanley are spending the week in Chittenden county on a vacation. During Tom's absence Hadley Burnham manipulates the depot bus.

Mrs. Grace Hutchins and daughter, Jane, who have been visiting relatives here, left last Friday for Newport for a short stay with friends before returning to her home in Niagara Falls, N. Y.

The West End Club will meet with Mrs. Charles Eddy on Tuesday of next week at two o'clock. The ladies are asked to bring sewing utensils, as work for the afternoon will be provided.

L. C. A. NOTES

L. C. A. opened Sept. 5, with an enrollment of 60. This number will be greatly augmented by those pupils who were not able to register until the second week.

The new members of the faculty are: Miss Thelma Dixon of Island Pond, a graduate of U. V. M. '22; Miss Frances Maynard of Bakersfield, also a graduate of U. V. M. '22; Miss Maude Donnell of Lewiston, Me., a graduate of Bates College. Expectations for a very successful year are held by all.

Arrangements are being made whereby volleyball will soon be one of the sports on the school campus.

The appearance of the schoolhouse has been greatly improved by painting.

A new furnace has been added to the equipment of the heating department. Bert Crowell is doing excellent work as janitor.

The classes in home economics are all organized. During the past week they have been canning the products of the school garden. On Wednesday, Sept. 20, the classes will serve a tea to all the friends of the school.

son also occurred in September and they were invited to sit with them. The committee-served seven different kinds of home-made cookies and tea. Mrs. Niles cut the birthday cake, dispensing not only the cake, but bluebirds to all. The ladies were of one mind in saying "this has been a very enjoyable meeting." Watch for notice of the next meeting.

The Y. P. S. C. E. resumed its meetings last Sunday evening at the Congregational Church after the summer vacation. There was a good attendance, with Ernest Mills as leader. The subject was "Obedience," and a number spoke on that topic. Rev. Perry Conger of Minneapolis gave a talk concerning a carpenter shop which he had visited in Nazareth and told of the kinds of work carried on there, particularly the making of yokes, which are placed on the shoulders for carrying purposes, and drew practical lessons therefrom. A solo was given by Miss Isadore Hood and a delegation from the Johnson association took part in the meeting. Next Sunday evening the annual election of officers will take place.

Save These Dates
Be sure that you make no engagements for the week of Oct. 15. The Masonic fair will furnish plenty of entertainment for everybody. The several committees plan to make it the best ever.

It don't pay to let your temper get the best of you. The other fellow wins by holding his own in check.

Meeting of Woman's Relief Corps
The Woman's Relief Corps meeting on Monday afternoon proved to be an exceptionally pleasant one in many ways. The business hour was conducted with dignity and despatch by the president. Floral tributes were much in evidence. The social hour committee was Edna Skinner, Mina Foss, Almay Banister. The president had a surprise for all, even the committee was taken unawares, when she decorated a table with yellow and white, placing a birthday cake, with dainty bluebirds covering the top, in the center of the table. She then seated Clara Bradley Niles and George Foss, in whose honor the party was given. It was soon discovered that the birthdays of Hattie Camp, Ra Jackson and Carrie Law-
